Design is function. To prove it, designer Pia Törnell created Convito. Seeking inspiration in the kitchens of some of Sweden's finest restaurateurs, she designed tableware which is as perfectly suited to a breakfast croissant as to a dinner party with family and friends. Different shapes that you can combine and vary.
For everyone who wants to offer more than what is simply on the menu.

A corona is a ring of light that is created when the light from the moon is bent by minute droplets of water. That's the scientific definition. But when Jonas Bohlin talks about the moon's corona he is more interested in its spectacle – the magnetic attraction of the moon and the beauty of the halo of light around this heavenly body. Jonas is especially fascinated by the silver-white glow of the almost monochrome corona; the pure light. It is a natural phenomenon in porcelain and genuine platinum, and a beautiful attempt to capture the moon and place it on the dinner table.

The official wedding series

Vitro porcelain

NEW!

Rörstrand

Ever since 1726 Rörstrand has been supplying the Swedish Royal Court and Swedish homes alike with exquisitely designed porcelain for both special occasions and everyday dining. The inspiration for Rörstrand's Official Wedding Series originates from an existing pattern at Drottningholm Palace.

The decoration consists of four well-known national symbols; the Crown of Sweden's Heir Apparent, the Pole Star, the Four-Leaf Clover and a stylised Flower. The Official Wedding Series combines timeless tradition with its own distinctive personality, and consists of eight carefully selected pieces in regal seraphim blue and genuine gold. Hand Washing is recommended.

Kurbits

Hard Porcelain
Design: Katarina Brieditis

Rörstrand

Kurbits is a floral service for our time, inspired by 200 years of flourishing Swedish folk art. Elegant yet light-hearted, Kurbits is a harmonious synthesis of craftsmanship and modern technology. Designer Katarina Brieditis' pattern is a delightful mix of painted, naive folk-art blooms and photos of real flowers. Kurbits is available in nine versatile, easy-to-combine pieces.

The Nobel dinner service was first used for the Nobel prize's 90th anniversary dinner in 1991. Inaugurated by Her Majesty the King and the Queen of Sweden and 1,300 invited guests at the Nobel dinner in Blå Hallen, Stockholm. The dinner service is an excellent example of high quality Swedish design in which a combination of exquisite designs using bone china results in a beautiful dinner table. The Nobel dinner service received the 'Excellent Swedish Design' award in 1992 from the Swedish Society of Crafts and Design [Föreningen Svensk Form].
The colours on the plates symbolise the four seasons, the continents and the first Nobel prize.

Qvint

Hard porcelain
Design: Jonas Bohlin

Rörstrand

Qvint is Jonas Bohlin's modern romantic dinner service, intended to function well both for daily use and for special occasions. Qvint is also the Swedish word for the fifth note in a scale, the number five and the interval between the first and the fifth notes in a scale. It is not, however, only associated with music as it also gives a description of the purpose of the dinner service - to be used in various different situations. A quintessential feature of everyday life.

One of Rörstrand's best-loved tableware services.

Swedish National Romanticism in the form of porcelain, as someone said.

Named after the home of Sweden's popular 19th century artist Carl Larsson and created by Pia Röndahl, Sundborn is decorated with the warmth, harmony and floral motifs that have become hallmarks of Pia's design.

Children's sets

Hard porcelain
Design: Lisa Larsson

Rörstrand

The Designer Karin Mannerstål chose to look at things from a child's perspective when she was commissioned to design a children's service for Rörstrand. The project was a great success, culminating in two colourful services. The different decorative finishes reflect the big, wide world and the smaller, more familiar things in life – but most important of all, they capture children's interest in exploring and understanding.

These children's services from Rörstrand each contain three items: mug, bowl and plate.
The services are imaginatively presented in their own attractive gift pack.

Mon Amie

Hard porcelain
Design: Marianne Westman

Rörstrand

Mon Amie (French for "my friend") made its debut back in the 1950s, when Marianne Westman created the now classic decorative pattern one rainy Midsummer Eve. Over the years the blue floral decoration has become something of an icon for Rörstrand. Marianne was a true pioneer within her genre and has even been called "the mother of Swedish porcelain".

Pia

Hard porcelain
Design: Pia Törnell

Rörstrand

In many cultures the lotus symbolises the path to spiritual growth and enlightenment. Pia Törnell's mug- called simply Pia – is decorated with a flamboyant graphic representation of the lotus blossom's exuberance. Simple, stylish – yet warm and welcoming at the same time.
